

SPORTS

Johnny McGowan Thrills Elkhart by Sensational Victory

FAST LIGHTWEIGHT IS TOO STRONG FOR CONTENDER OF TITLE

With Broken Rib, Game Bender Outpouts Michigan Pride in Every Round.

ELKHART, Nov. 10.—In the greatest fight ever seen in Elkhart, Johnny McGowan, South Bend's premier lightweight, greatly outpointed, out-boxed and outfought Johnny Thiel, Michigan lightweight champion contender, in the entire ten rounds of their battle before a banner crowd at the American Legion show at the local armory.

Crashing the stick of dynamite that seemed to be perpetually in either of his paws, to the open and almost undefended jaw of the knockout king, McGowan shattered all hope Thiel had of winning a big victory that would start him on a campaign through this state. Thiel had hoped to win the title in this state within the next year.

Hampered by a broken rib, but otherwise in superb condition, the best and flashiest lightweight that Elkhart has seen in many moons played a tattoo upon the body and head of his opponent, who was dazed and almost out from the third round, when McGowan staggered him with a sleep-producing left, flung to the jaw. The bell saved Thiel many times throughout the fight.

Danny McGowan, brother and clearly outpointed Earl Williams of Chicago in a one-sided four-round curtain raiser. Danny, a mere slip of a bantam, proved to have almost as much power behind his swing as Elkhart and had his opponent in a bad way from the first round.

The Legion show, thanks to the stellar performances of the McGowans, went over big. Financially and from a standpoint of the fans, it was the best exhibition ever seen here. The old ringmaster, who never fails to see the milt battles held about the railroad city were loud in their praise of the fighters last night and the fans are clamoring for another show in Elkhart in which McGowan will be matched against an even better opponent.

As predicted by the sports editor of this paper a week ago, McGowan proved that he is well worth the prize that has been handed out to him and is capable of giving a wonderful exhibition at any time that a match is secured for him. It is very likely that he, a real headliner, will fight the final bout of the big next show held here.

Jimmy Kelly Is Ready to Start Heavy Schedule

Will Fight the Best and Wind Up With Big Battle Against Title Holder.

Jimmy Kelly, Notre Dame's classy bantamweight, is working at top speed these days. The reason is that Jimmy's winter season is about to begin, and it promises to be the biggest winter ever for him. Jim Mullen, his Chicago manager, is lining up a dozen or more big scraps for his little protégé, and Jimmy intends to take care of them in the best of shape.

The fights which he has been engaging in this fall were really nothing more than preparatory scraps. The big game season for Jimmy will begin on Nov. 17, when he meets George Corbett, Chicago stockyards boxer, in a 10-round bout at Kenosha, and will be open all winter to culminate in a match with no other than Johnny Buff, present holder of the bantamweight title. It will be Jimmy's first crack at the crown, and Notre Dame will be pulling hard for him to bring it home. The match is practically clinched, according to Jim Mullen, although the exact date has not yet been set.

N. D. SPRINTER IS AGAIN IN COLLEGE

In addition to cheer brought to the Notre Dame campus with the return of the Notre Dame team Thursday morning after its two glorious victories over the Army and Rutgers colleges, the news that Bill Hayes, western 100 yard champion and veteran track man, had returned to school with the team capped the happy occasion.

For some time the students had been concerned for fear that the champion dash man would not be in Notre Dame this season and the news of his return to school from his home in Boston bends the student's interest to track events next spring. Hayes, who holds the western championship in the 100 yard dash having stepped that distance in 9 4-5 seconds also is the only man said to have a chance to beat Faddock of California in the 220 yard dash.

With the return of Bill Thursday morning and Johnnie Murphy, western high jump champion from his home in Oregon several days ago everything looks bright for a winning track team at Notre Dame next season. Hayes left Boston several days ago and saw the Notre Dame football warriors romp with West Point and Rutgers in New York.

REAL TRIBUTE IS GIVEN NOTRE DAME BY INDIANAPOLIS

Entire State Beginning to Realize That "Irish" Are the Country's Best.

The teams that have locked the doors of their sanctum and fortified themselves behind a wall of prestige such as the "Big Ten" and the "Big Three," which in our estimation may be termed as the "Big Blaaa," received their writing on the wall yesterday when the Indianapolis Star, formerly one of their biggest boosters, published in its editorial columns one of the best summaries concerning football published this season.

It reads as follows: "Our Great Football Machine. Regardless of university affiliations the Hoosier takes pride in the achievements of the Notre Dame football team, now returning to its home grounds after its successful invasion of the east, which included a brilliant victory over the Army and a one-sided romp over the Rutgers eleven. The Big Three of the east may isolate themselves behind a wall of prestige and the Big Ten of the west look with supercilious eyes upon those institutions which do not have the privilege of membership, if it may be regarded as such, but the real combat dashing across the national football horizon is the team from South Bend."

Cochran Rockne's men have traveled east year after year with a dazzling assortment of forward passes and trick plays mingled with the old-style smash until eastern critics have grown accustomed to expect the unusual whenever Notre Dame appears. It is seldom that they are disappointed. The precision with which Notre Dame handles the forward pass and the ability to use it for consistent gains are almost uncanny in comparison with the uncertainty which accompanies its use by the average team. The Rockne clan also executes its plays with a speed which often makes an opponent appear unusually slow. In addition to this mechanical perfection the players have imbued a spirit of aggressiveness and bulldog tenacity that has repeatedly snatched victory out of apparent defeat.

A tendency has prevailed in some quarters to attribute Notre Dame's superiority over other Indiana teams to an alleged laxity in maintaining strict eligibility standards. This charge is not prompted by good sportsmanship. The "prep" system probably accounts for the continuous supply of good football material, and the reputation Rockne's teams has gained also serves to attract many promising athletes. In view of the uniform strength which these Hoosier eleven show, it is unfortunate that contests have not been scheduled with the best eastern universities. Penn State and Lafayette or Yale and Harvard would find worthy foes in the super-teams from northern Indiana.

Trodden Boxers Now Have Their Own "Lil" Union

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Poor down-trodden boxers who can make only from $5.00 to $25,000 an hour when they are working and poor abused managers who can make only about half that when they are at it, have resolved to organize something like a union to protect their interests.

The Boxers' Protective association, which is to include fighters, managers, seconds, rubbers, towel slingers and their friends, will be built off a pattern to be fashioned by a committee consisting of Jack Curley, Dan McKelrick, Dan Morgan, Eddie Mead, Jim Buckley, Charley Harvey, Joe Woodman, Harry Lenney, Jack Britton, Benny Leonard, Willie Lewis, Billy Wellam, Billy Gibson, George England and Frank Bagley.

The outline of the proposed union to form a governing body to lift boxing and place it on a spotless plane through a supervising association like the United States Lawn Tennis association or the A. A. U. Tex Rickard may chuckle over the new union, especially if the "closed shop" is incorporated in the by-laws. The state boxing commission also may get a kick out of the layman effort to clean up boxing, one of the duties imposed upon the commission by the state.

WILLARD MATCH IS NEAR ABANDONMENT

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Arrangements for a return bout between Champion Jack Dempsey and Jesse Willard, regarded as almost sure a few weeks ago, now appear on the verge of dissolution.

Promoter Tex Rickard, who planned the battle for July 1, next, in his arena in Jersey City, has exhibited impatience with Willard's delay in returning a signed contract for the battle. Reports have been received here that Willard has made a "strike" in one of his investments and if the reports are true it is regarded as unlikely that he will devote the necessary time to training for another match with Dempsey.

Johnny Buff Retains Bantamweight Crown By Fast Milling in Final Rounds of Fast Midget Battle Against Johnny Sharkey

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Johnny Buff, world's bantamweight boxing champion, retained his title Thursday night by obtaining a judge's decision over Jack Sharkey of New York at the end of their 15-round bout in Madison Square Garden.

Beaten in a number of the earlier rounds, Buff started a winning offensive in the 13th round and by the power of his hitting turned the tide against the Italian-American. Buff opened the fight with a rush and Sharkey's well placed blows slowed him up for a while. He was staggered by Sharkey's blows on numerous occasions but recuperated quickly.

Sharkey had the better of five rounds, six went to Buff and four were even. Buff weighed 114 pounds and Sharkey 116 1-2. Fight by Rounds. Round 1—The champion took the offensive and after missing two right swings to the body, they clinched. There were several light exchanges at close quarters. Round 2—Sharkey landed a left to the stomach, slipped and fell, but was up again. Buff landed right and left to the head. There was a fierce interchange of body punching led by Buff. Both were wild. Round 3—Buff sent a hard right and left to the body. Buff's stomach stopped a hard right.

Round 4—Sharkey took the offensive, but was wild. Sharkey sent a right to stomach. Buff landed hard right on jaw.

Round 5—Sharkey sent a stiff left to stomach and in a clinch uppercut Buff with left. Buff was short with right to jaw. Sharkey pounded Buff with rights and lefts to stomach and head.

Round 6—Sharkey countered a series of right uppercuts with straight lefts to the jaw. Round 7—Sharkey swung hard rights and lefts to the body. Buff returning with right and left hooks to the jaw. Sharkey staggered Buff with rights to body and a left to the jaw.

Round 8—Sharkey hooked twice with left to jaw and head. Buff with rights to stomach. They swung hard at close quarters. Sharkey appeared to have the better of the fighting. Sharkey staggered the champion with a left to jaw. Round 9—Sharkey again staggered Buff with left to jaw. Buff landed light lefts to the head and Sharkey followed with two right uppercuts. Both landed hard body blows in Sharkey's corner and then interchanged of body punching led by Buff. Both were wild.

Round 10—Buff sent a hard right and left to the body. Buff's stomach stopped a hard right. Round 11—Sharkey took the offensive, but was wild. Sharkey sent a right to stomach. Buff landed hard right on jaw.

Round 12—Sharkey landed hard rights and lefts to body. Buff ordered the men to resume. Sharkey continued the assault on Buff's head and body. Buff countered with rights and lefts to the head. The titleholder fought desperately, stopped, claiming a foul. Referee Sharkey landed left to chin at the bell.

Round 13—Buff missed left uppercut and took a light right to the stomach. They fought lightly at close quarters. Buff sent right to jaw and Sharkey missed swing to the head. Buff sent hard right and lefts to the body. Buff landed light body blows. Buff had the better of a battle at close quarters. Buff landed right to body and rights and lefts to the jaw.

Round 14—Both landed lefts to jaw. Buff sent hard right to Sharkey's jaw. Sharkey staggered Buff with left to the jaw. Buff came back with rights to the head. Both missed swings to the head. Sharkey sent right to stomach at the bell.

Round 15—Both landed lefts to jaw. Buff sent hard right to Sharkey's jaw. Sharkey staggered Buff with left to the jaw. Buff came back with rights to the head. Both missed swings to the head. Sharkey sent right to stomach at the bell.

Backfield Stars May Be Out When Haskell's Appear

Mohardt and Coughlin Suffer Injuries From Battle Against Rutgers.

Notre Dame will very probably be forced to start the Haskell game minus the services of at least two of her star backfield men—Coughlin and Mohardt. Danny's ankle was badly sprained in the Rutgers game, and last night it had swelled to the size of a small pumpkin. Mohardt's face was lacerated by the cleats and talons of the Scarlet players on the same occasion, and he may be required to rest a while in order to be in perfect shape for the Marquette game, which promises to be a tough proposition for the Irish.

As Coughlin and Mohardt are the speediest members of the gold and blue backfield, their injuries might prove disastrous to Notre Dame were it not for the fact that the game promises to be merely a repetition of the Rutgers struggle. Rockne's scouts credit the redskins with valor, but not with much tactical skill. They have been working for a solid week on Fox field at Laporte, however, and may have developed a few tricks which might surprise the N. D. followers tomorrow.

Irish Workout Today. The Irish will be given a light workout on Cartier field this afternoon. The game with Rutgers served the purpose of the usual weekly scrimmage, so it cannot be inferred that the men will be rusty. The trip which they made was a hard one, but they will have two full days rest by Saturday, and should be feeling in just the right humor to scalp the Indians. The complete squad of 40 men may be used tomorrow if Haskell proves as easy as is expected.

When they whipped the Haskell Indians by 40-2 a score a week ago. Now that is as large a score as Nebraska was able to roll up on the Redskins. Marquette did it easily, using her first team not much more than half the game. The scoring was practically all accomplished by the Irish. Now a team that can roll up 40 points in 30 minutes on the Haskell Indians is not a team to be underrated, and if the Irish go to Milwaukee over-confident, they are liable to get the same surprise they did a year ago this fall in the Indiana game.

Many Seats Sold. Despite the fact that the game promises to be an easy one for Notre Dame a large crowd of spectators will assemble if weather conditions are right. The publicity given to Notre Dame by the New York newspapers has aroused an interest to see the team which crushed the Army as if it were a high school team and three days later repeated on Rutgers. The team will be seen in action on Cartier field on only one other occasion before the end of the season, when the Michigan Aggies are played on Thanksgiving day.

The one big game left for Notre Dame is neither the Haskell game tomorrow nor the Aggie game on Thanksgiving day, but the Marquette game which will be played on the 19th. Marquette was looked upon as an easy proposition when the season started, but opinions changed

Notre Dame-Army Game to Be Shown at Local Theater

Pictures showing the most thrilling plays during the Notre Dame-Army game last Saturday will be shown for the rest of the week at the Blackstone theatre. Manager Berkson, through the medium of the International News Service made arrangements for the photographing of over 1000 feet of film.

The stunt is a new one in this city and provides an exceptional opportunity for the fans to see the "Fighting Irish" aggregation at its best. It is well known that the game they play against the great eastern soldiers is far superior to anything they show here.

Just how long the film will be shown is not known, but it was announced last night that today would be Notre Dame day at the picture house.

ZBYZKO MATCHED. NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Stanislav Zbyzko, world's champion wrestler, will defend his title against Ed "Strangler" Lewis at Madison Square Garden on Nov. 28.

SHADE BEATEN. NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Bert Collins of San Francisco received the judge's decision over George Shade, also of San Francisco, at the end of their eight-round bout in Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

START WITH WIN. The Rambler basketball tossers, composed of members of the crack Y. M. C. A. team here, journeyed to Bremen last night and defeated the American Legion team of that town by a score of 23-12. Burnham, Nyikos and Rhodes were the outstanding stars of the game.

when they whipped the Haskell Indians by 40-2 a score a week ago. Now that is as large a score as Nebraska was able to roll up on the Redskins. Marquette did it easily, using her first team not much more than half the game. The scoring was practically all accomplished by the Irish. Now a team that can roll up 40 points in 30 minutes on the Haskell Indians is not a team to be underrated, and if the Irish go to Milwaukee over-confident, they are liable to get the same surprise they did a year ago this fall in the Indiana game.

Thorn Tornadoes Tackle Goshen's Premier Eleven

Fraternity Aggregation Has Made Great Record and is Out to Win Today.

GOSHEN, Ind., Nov. 11.—This afternoon the celebrated Chicago Thorn Tornadoes will tackle the Goshen Deltas, who are claimants of the northern Indiana football championship, as a part of the Armistice day program arranged for Goshen. The tilt will start at 3:15 o'clock at the city park gridiron. A. V. Harter, manager of the Goshen team, has made arrangements to take care of a crowd of 1,500 fans. The Deltas have been creating a sensation in this section this year.

Pittsburg's Recruits Displayed Some Class

Seldom has a major league ball club ever had such success with its recruits as did the Pittsburg team of last season. Two infielders, Tierney and Barnhardt, made good, while Traynor gives every evidence of being a star. In addition Grimm, who was just ordinary in 1929, looked like a star at first base last year. Two recruit pitchers made good with a vengeance, Morrison and Glazner, while Yellowhorse showed great promise until illness put him out of the running.

GRID TEAMS WILL DECIDE SUPREMACY

Mussey park will be the scene of the annual gridiron clash of the pigskin warriors of Vassar park and the heavyweight eleven of the "Williams Specials" at 2:30 Friday afternoon. Extra weight of the "Williams Specials" is believed to be offset by the agility of two Vassar park stars. Carl Roxdrow, the 128 pound quarterback of the Vassar park squad is depended upon for consistent ground gaining while "Bud" Bailey, the agile right halfback, is expected to circle the Williams ends for long gains. The Vassar eleven weighs on an average from 130 to 115 pounds. Their opponents average from 115 to 125 pounds. Bauer and Williams are the stars of the "Specials."

Wear a carnation on Armistice day. 423-11

Yosts to Carry Fifteen Men to Michigan City

Many Supporters and 18 Men to Make Trip Today to Lake Town.

The footballers of this city will leave over the South Shore lines this morning at 10:31 for Michigan City to give battle to the legion football team of that city. Manager Wunderlich announced last night that he would carry 18 men on the trip and that he wanted to have plenty of reserves to send against their much heavier opponents. The locals will be outweighed fully 15 pounds, to the man when they line up. This means that McCarthy, Ramey and Smythe will have to play a rushing game and outplay their rivals on every play.

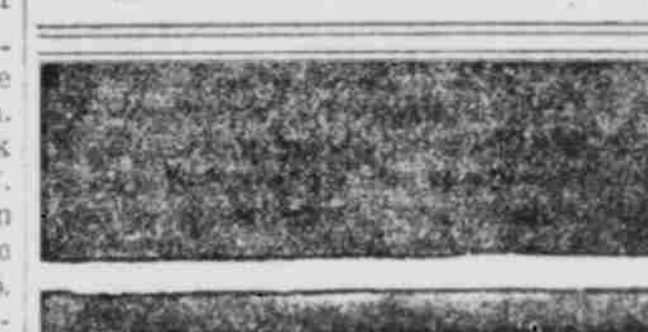

Daily practices have been held the last week and Manager Wunderlich is well satisfied with the condition of his men and expects victory. Capt. Mullander, quarterback, has been in charge of the daily practices. New plays and formations have been added.

The forward wall and backfield will be well studied with former High school stars and players of note in the professional world of South Bend.

Fully 50 supporters and fans are doped to accompany the team in its maiden trip down state. Rumors are current that the Yost aggregation will be wiped off the map but are unfounded. Last week the Yosts defeated Bremen 26 to 2. Then Bremen defeated the Wolverines 24 to 0, but they bowed in defeat to Michigan City, 41 to 0. Two evenly matched teams will meet when the starting whistle blows.

PLENTY OF QUAIL. INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 10.—The quail season was on today and will continue until Dec. 20. Reports from all over Indiana indicate both quail and rabbits are plentiful.

Bronx park contains the finest and largest zoological garden in the world.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even appear in a suit. Sabo will also be on the side lines when the starting whistle blows. He formerly played Voodish's tackle job. Voodish is ready while Klinski has a minor bruise on his shoulder and has been saved from scrimmage. Scheer spent yesterday in bed, because of his infection, but the coach was of the opinion that he would be on the field tonight. Burnham knows what he is talking about and every one will feel better when Scheer appears.

Coach Burnham will not start all of his first string men. Scheer is not able to even